

RoHS Declaration

Directive 2011/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of June 8, 2011 and Commission Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863 of March 31, 2015, on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (“RoHS Directive”)

Microchip USA does not introduce any materials that change the RoHS compliance of a component, nor is MUSA directly involved in the manufacturing, packaging, or handling of any product purchased by you, the customer.

Only the original manufacturer can provide the RoHS data of their components. It is the responsibility of the purchaser or end user to obtain RoHS compliance information. Microchip USA will not be held responsible for any claims regarding RoHS compliance of any given materials.

Microchip USA is an independent distributor, the above statement applies to all parts procured therein.
